Come, let us worship Christ, our King and our God and bow down before Him! (metany)

And the reader or ecclesiarch begins Psalm 103. While this is done the priest uncovers his head leaves the Holy Place through the North Door and standing before the icon of Christ quietly recites the Prayers of Light. When finished the priest returns to the Holy Place via the South Door.

Psalm 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

You are very great, O Lord, my God!

-Clothed in pomp and brilliance, arrayed with light as with a cloak.

-Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth, covering Your lofty halls with water.

-You make the clouds Your conveyance,
You surge on the wings of the wind.

GREAT VESPERS ON SUNDAYS AND FEASTS

- You make spirits Your messengers and flaming fires Your attendants.
- You settle the earth on its firm foundation;
it shall stand unmoved from age to age.

- The abyss covers it like a garment;
waters stand over the mountains.
- At Your rebuke, they will take to flight,
at the peal of Your thunder they will fear.

- They hurdle the hills and run down the dales to the place You have chosen for them.
- You have set up a boundary not to be passed:
they shall never return to cover the earth.

- Down in the gullies, You make springs to rise:
waters shall go down between the mountains.
- They shall give drink to the beasts of the field;
wild asses will seek them to quench their thirst.

- The birds of the sky will abide by them:
from among the rocks they will raise their song.
- From Your lofty halls You refresh the mountains;
the earth shall be fed with the fruit of Your works.

- You make green pastures for the cattle and food-plants for the service of man,
- So that bread may be brought forth from the earth and wine that gladdens the heart of man.

- So that oil may put a gleam upon his face and that bread may strengthen the heart of man.
- The trees of the plains will be satisfied,
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.

GREAT VESPERS ON SUNDAYS AND FEASTS

- The sparrows will build their nests in them and the herons will call them their home.
- To the deer belong high mountains,
to rodents, the shelter of the rocks.
- You have made the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows the time of its setting.
- You establish darkness and it is night wherein the forest creatures prowl around.
- Young lions roar for their prey and call out to God for their meat.
- As the sun rises, they will come together and lay themselves down in their dens.
- Man will go out to his labor and work until eventide.
- How great are Your works, O Lord!
In wisdom You have wrought them all:
the earth is filled with Your creatures.
- Even the wide and open sea itself:
within it there are countless creeping things, living beings small and large.
- Upon it there are ships a-sailing and that great beast You made to have fun.
- All of them look up to You to give them their food in due time.
- You provide and they gather up;
You open Your hand and they are full.
- You hide Your face and they cringe,
You suspend their breath and they die
and return to their dust.
- You send forth Your breath and they live:
You renew the face of the earth!

GREAT VESPERS ON SUNDAYS AND FEASTS

-May the Lord's glory endure for ever,
 may the Lord rejoice in His works.
-He looks upon the earth and makes it quake,
 He touches the mountains and they smoke.

-I will sing to the Lord as long as I live,
 I will praise my God as long as I last.
-Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him and I will rejoice in the Lord.

-May the sinners vanish from the earth and may the wicked be no more.
-Bless the Lord, O my soul!

The sun knows the time of its setting.
 You establish darkness and it is night.
-How great are Your works, O Lord!
 In wisdom You have wrought them all.

-Glory be to the Father ✠ and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,
-now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

-Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Glory ✠ to You, O God! (with metany)
-Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Glory ✠ to You, O God! (with metany)
-Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Glory ✠ to You, O God! O our Hope, glory to You! (with metany)

GREAT VESPERS ON SUNDAYS AND FEASTS

KATHISMA

The Kathisma Psalms are, in general, no longer done. If, however, they are done then they are recited as follows:

According to Coutourier:

On 1st Class Feasts - no psalms

On Saturdays, and on 2nd & 3rd class feasts - the 1st Stasis of Kathisma 1 (Psalms 1, 2 and 3)

If the Kathisma psalms are done they are followed by a little litany:

D: Again and again in peace, let us pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

D: Help us, save us, have mercy on us and protect us, O God, by Your grace.

All: Lord, have mercy.

D: Remembering our all-holy, spotless, most highly blessed and glorious lady the Theotokos and ever-virgin Mary with all the saints, let us commend ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ God.

All: To You, O Lord.

P: For Yours is the dominion and Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

All: Amen.

GREAT VESPERS ON SUNDAYS AND FEASTS

During the singing of “O Lord to You I call” the deacon prepares the incense. Receiving the blessing of the priest he begins the incensation at “Let my prayer rise like incense.” He censes the holy table, the iconostasis and the entire church, returning to the holy place.

Set a guard, O Lord, before my mouth and a portal around my lips.

Incline my heart away from evil dealings,
from finding excuses for sinful deeds.

In company with men who work iniquity let me not partake of what they choose.

May a just man chasten me with justice and reprove me;
may the oil of the wicked never touch my head.

Yet even then shall I pray for their welfare.
Their rulers were swallowed near the rock.

My words will be heard for they were sweet.
As a lump of clay broken on the ground,
so their bones were strewn near the grave.

To You, Lord, O Lord, my eyes are lifted up;
in You have I hoped: let not my soul be lost.

Keep me from the snare that was set up for me and from the stumbling blocks of wicked men.

The wicked shall fall into their own nets while I remain alone until I can escape.

PSALM 141

With my voice I cried out to the Lord, with my voice, I implored the Lord.

Before Him I pour out my supplication, before Him I declare my distress.

When my breath was escaping me,
then You knew my paths.

On the road upon which I was walking they set up snares for me.

I looked to my right and observed:
there was no one friendly to me.

Even flight was denied me;
there was no one to take care of my life.

I cried out to You, O Lord, and said:
“You are my hope, my share in the land of the living.”

Listen to my supplication for I am laid very low.

Deliver me from my oppressors for they have overwhelmed me.

Release my soul from its prison that I may praise Your Name.

The 10th Sticheron, if there is one, is inserted at this point. The Stichera can be found in the Menaion or other Liturgical books for the celebration of the day.

For all glory, honor and worship are your due, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and always and forever and ever. Amen.

Priest and deacon make the entrance. The deacon carries the incense. They stop before the holy doors. The deacon asks the blessing of the priest:

D: Bless the holy entering, Father.

TROPARIA

Troparia for Sundays & Feasts can be found at the end of the booklet.

The Troparion of the Resurrection or the Troparion of the Saint or feast of the day is sung. If there are more than one Troparia “Glory to the Father...” and “Now and ever...” are intercalated between them as appropriate. On Sundays we conclude with the Resurrectional Theotokion in the tone of the final Troparion. The Resurrectional Theotokia can be found at the end of the booklet.

If there is Artoclasia, the service ends as follows:

At the singing of the troparia, the priest and deacon exit the Holy Place via the North door. The deacon bears a lighted candle and stands opposite the priest at the analogion. After blessing the incense the priest incenses on each side of the table.

D: Let us pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

The priest takes one of the loaves in his hands, makes the sign of the cross over it, and says aloud:

P: O Lord Jesus Christ, our God, who blessed the five loaves in the wilderness, and thus sustained five thousand men (He breaks the loaf on four sides), bless these loaves, the wheat, the wine and the oil and multiply them in this holy city and for Your whole world, and sanctify the faithful who partake of them: for You are the One who bless and sanctify all things, O Christ our God, and we render glory to You and to Your Eternal Father and to Your all-holy, good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages of ages.

All:Amen.

Blessed be the Name of the Lord, now and forever. (3x)
